ABOUT MOLEKONG

About Us

Molekong is a purely black owned company founded in 2013 by Frans Monareng with more than 18 years' experience in the travel sector; saw an indispensable need for providing unique, professional and reliable African Travel Solutions to both national and international travelers, travelling through, from and to Africa via South Africa. Molekong executives collectively have more than 65 years' experience in customer care.

What We Do

Molekong is a strategic corporate African Travel Solutions service provider partner company that provides unique, professional and reliable travel services that meet client requirements. We always exceed clients' expectations!

Objectives

To be an African Travel Solutions services partner to more than 100 national and international companies and 1000 private individuals travelling through, to and from Africa by 2020.

Our Vision

To be the preferred and the best offering of African Travel Solutions worldwide.

Our Mission

To be a leading, award winning African Travel Solutions partner company through strategic partnerships with micro & mega companies, government departments and non-profit organizations together with private professionals & executives, utilizing mostly private unemployed individuals by empowering them to contribute towards our 2020 objective which forms part of our vision.
